Pivotal & Civil is an innovative Electrical Recruitment Solution provider specialising in providing quality candidates and solutions for organisations in the NSW Electrical Contracting market.

Pivotal & Civil is able to provide staff for short term and ongoing assignments, as well as permanent placements. Roles that we typically recruit for are:

- Licensed Electricians
- Unlicensed Electricians
- Data Technicians
- Instrumentation Trades
- Trade Assistants
- Labourers
- Project Managers
- Estimators
- Site Supervisors

Pivotal & Civil is committed to delivering quality electrical staff to a diverse range of multi disciplinary electrical projects, ensuring the provision of vital infrastructure for your organisation to meet demands.

Part of one of Australia's leading, privately owned Human Resource Consultancies, Pivotal & Civil's business strategy is built on three critical elements: commitment, reliability, and the ability to gain a sound understanding of our clients' business. It is with these three elements combined that are key to our success.

Our recruitment team brings a wealth of knowledge within specialist areas working in the electrical industry.

Our understanding of the industry, roles, and requirements are fundamental to our success.

Your business will gain:

- Well screened and suitably presented electrical candidates, appropriate to the role and team culture
- Optimum service delivery
- Electrical Industry experts committed to your organisation

Pivotal & Civil can supply the WH&S General Induction to Construction Course (White Card) for your staff.
