NICEIC PRESENTS A SERIES OF TECHNICAL SEMINARS
SPONSORED BY VOLTIMUM AND PARTNERS

TWO FANTASTIC OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN ABOUT
THE HISTORY OF NICEIC, TO FIND OUT THE LATEST
INDUSTRY 'HOT TOPICS' AS WELL AS DISCOVER WHAT
THE FUTURE HOLDS FOR THE ELECTROTECHNICAL INDUSTRY.

There will be interactive sessions, an informal environment to network and talk directly to leading manufacturers in the Voltimum and partners Expo, as well as a prize draw with fabulous gifts on offer.

The NICEIC is proud to be able to celebrate its 50th Anniversary. We would like everyone in the electrical contracting and related industries to share in these celebrations.

The technical seminars are hosted by NICEIC and sponsored by Voltimum and its partners and will include an exhibition.

Dave Austen of The Facility will tell us about the history of NICEIC, and other renowned industry speakers will present ideas and developments on the WEEE Directive, Part L / Scottish Building Regulations and BS 7671, focusing specifically on how they will effect the contractor and industry as a whole.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT THE SEMINARS

PROGRAMME

1700 Registration, refreshments and networking with Voltimum and its manufacturing partners at the Expo

1800 Series of mini presentations with topics including:

History of NICEIC

Learn how NICEIC was established and how it has evolved to become the organisation that it is today. Discover how it has influenced, changed and regulated standards of electrical safety for both contractors and consumer in the UK over the last 50 years.

The Scottish Building Regulations (Glasgow only)

NICEIC is approved by Scottish Ministers as a provider of the Certification of Construction scheme. A brief overview of the requirements will be given, including what work requires a warrant, the response to date from consumers to the scheme as well as the support available from NICEIC to contractors.

Part L (Birmingham only)

A brief introduction to Part L, one of the most recent parts of the Building Regulations under scrutiny, will be given whilst identifying how conservation of heat and power will affect the electrical contractor carrying out work in new and existing buildings, both domestic and commercial.

The WEEE Directive

Looking at the disposal of materials, the 'plus' points for electrical contractors will be explained as well as considering the implications of non-compliance with the Directive.

1900 Finger buffet with further opportunity to visit the Voltimum Expo

1945 Presentation - BS 7671: General discussion on BS 7671 will take place.

2010 Q&A followed by prize draw - your opportunity to win one of the great prizes up for grabs, kindly donated by Voltimum and its manufacturing partners.

2030 Anticipated close

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Each of the events is open to anyone but will be of particular interest to electrical contractors, specifiers, architects, developers, housing associations and consultants.
